“Opening New Doors” educational programs

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County seniors looking to get out of the house and learn something new are encouraged to attend the “Opening New Doors” senior educational programs.

Offered by the Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services’ Adult Day Service Program, “Opening News Doors” provides a well-rounded selection of topics for the educational fun and benefit of Macomb County seniors.

Held at the Macomb County Southeast Health Center Auditorium, 25401 Harper Ave., St. Clair Shores, the series will cover various topics each month.

The next session features a presentation on “Communication Tips and Techniques” by Kathryn A. W. Kozlinski, program coordinator for Macomb County Adult Day Service Program. It will be from 10 a.m. to noon Thursday, Sept. 14.

These programs are free of charge, but registration is required. Supervised care for adults is available during the presentation for a fee of $10. To register, call 586-466-6817.
